MONTHLY HIGHLIGHTS REPORT
Special Security Center
September 1975

1. During September, a member of the SSC conducted an exhaustive review of Agency documents to determine what might have been source material for three news items which were designated as classified leaks. His research work served as the basis for a Security Committee report to USIB.

2. On 9 September, a member of the SSC indoctrinated the new Agents Class (Office of Security) into three compartmented programs and also gave a brief explanation of the charter and duties of the SSC.

3. A member of the SSC, on 12 September, briefed 36 individuals from the National Security Council Staff on the control, stamping, receipting, and mailing of compartmented material.
